Instructions for Manuscripts

The manuscripts should be prepared electronically using MS-Word and typed single-spaced on one side of A4 paper in English, and limited to 6 pages, including tables and figures.

If you have difficulty in sending the manuscripts electronically, hard copy submission will be accepted. In that case, the manuscripts should be typed double-spaced.

- 1. Title: Center the title of the paper and capitalize each word of the title. The title must be set in a bold typeface, in Time Roman 14. Authors' names and affiliations should follow the title and be typed in Time Roman 12. The presenting author's mailing address, telephone and fax numbers, and e-mail address should follow. The name of the presenting author should be set in a bold typeface.
- 2. Abstract: Each paper must begin with an abstract of no more than 250 words. The abstract should be typed in Time Roman 10.5.
- 3. Key words: 3-5 Key words should be supplied after the abstract for indexing purpose.
- 4. Introduction: The Introduction should be concise and describe: "What is the goal and the scope of the work?" It should not repeat the contents of the Abstract and the Text.
- 5. Text: It should be typed in Time Roman 12.
- 6. References: These should be listed in the same order as cited in the text, and typed in Time Roman 10.5 below the text. One example is as follows:

[1] Velis, D R, Ulrych, T J. Simulated annealing wavelet estimation via fourth-order cumulant matching. Geophysics, 1996, 61:1939-1948.
- 7. Units and Symbols: Temperature must be expressed in degree Celsius (C), time in seconds (s), minutes (min), hours (h), days, months, or years. Otherwise the international system of Units (SI) should be used.
- 8. Abbreviations: These should be explained in full when mentioned for the first time.
- 9. Tables: These should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numbers. Each table must have a short legend. The "Three-line table" is preference. They should be comprehensible without reference to the text. Data from tables should not be repeated in the Text and figures.
- 10. Figures: The white and black or gray figures are preference. If it is very necessary, the color figures can be used. These should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numbers. Each figure must have a short legend. The common formats of the figures, such as: BMP, GIF, JPG, and PDF will be accepted. Each figure should be individually attached and indicated the position in the text.
